

welcome to the mailing list: become active for the 16 days of activism 2005 in bosnia and herzegovina!

thank you for your interest, we will keep you posted regularly, and we ask you to send us activities you would like to participate in. same as last year, the theme of this global campaign is health: for the health of women, for the health of the world – until the violence ends!

for the campaign of 16 days of activism 2005, numerous activities are planned and we are sending them for your review, so please send us feedback – comments, suggestions, and other are all welcome.

how does violence affect women's health – psychological, reproductive, sexual, emotional and social violence that is? gender based violence that goes on in our society and the world requires organized actions in order to end violence and strengthen mechanisms to achieve gender equality.

join us!
