

16 Days of Activism

The 16 Days of Activism against Gender Violence is an international campaign originating from the first Women's Global Leadership Institute sponsored by the Centre for Women's Global Leadership in 1991. "For the eighth year, SA is taking part in the global 16 Days of Activism for No Violence against Women campaign, which runs from 25 November (International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women) through to International Human Rights Day on December 10."(www.southafrica.info)

On 1 December the Mail & Guardian will publish a special feature on the 16 Days of Activism. The supplement will include a range of articles by women who are experts in the following fields and will document how changes in these fields effect the combating of violence against women and children:

- 👉 Law and human rights;
- 👉 Arts and culture;
- 👉 Reproductive health;
- 👉 The role of culture and religion in our community;
- 👉 The justice system;
- 👉 Work being done by NGO's.
