

*Co-Sponsored by the Institute for Women's Leadership,
the Department of Women's & Gender Studies, and the Center for Women's Global Leadership*

WHY YOUR VOTE MATTERS FOR WOMEN'S HEALTH LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY

Find out how U.S. policies affect you and women around the world.

Tuesday, October 12, 2004

Reception: 3:00 p.m.

Program: 3:30 p.m.

Ruth Dill Johnson Crockett Building
162 Ryders Lane, Douglass Campus

Featuring Panelists:

Carmen Barroso - (Brazil) Regional Director, International Planned Parenthood Federation/Western Hemisphere Region; formerly Director of Population Program for the MacArthur Foundation.

Pregaluxmi Govender - (South Africa) Former Parliamentarian of South Africa; Fulbright Scholar, Center for Women's Global Leadership

Jeannine LaRue - Senior Vice President, Saint Barnabas Health System, responsible for legislative, regulatory and public affairs for New Jersey's largest healthcare system; President, Executive Women of New Jersey

Susan Wilson - Founder and Executive Coordinator, Network for Family Life Education, Rutgers Center for Applied Psychology; architect of New Jersey's state-wide sexuality education program in public schools

Charlotte Bunch - Founder and Executive Director, Center for Women's Global Leadership, moderator

For more information, contact Kristen Pipes: (732) 932-1463 ext. 646, kpipes@rci.rutgers.edu.