

WOMEN AT THE INTERSECTION OF RACISM AND OTHER OPPRESSIONS: VIDEO, STUDY GUIDE, AND BOOK

Women at the Intersection of Racism and Other Oppressions: A Human Rights Hearing Video and Companion Study Guide

This new, intriguing video explores the meaning of intersectionality and women's strategies for overcoming oppressions through focusing on highlights of three testimonies: violations in war, conflict and genocide – ethnic Chinese women in Indonesia; violations of bodily integrity and sexuality – Roma women in Serbia; violations on account of migration and immigration – Haitian women immigrants in the Dominican Republic. The video also celebrates the organizing strategies used by women's groups to work against intersectional discrimination. The companion study guide to the video utilizes interactive methodologies to help groups develop strategies for analysis and action by gaining better understanding of intersectionality as presented in the video testimonies and by developing skills to use an intersectional human rights methodology in their work to overcome racism and the multiple oppression women face.
