

Dare to Dream

*7:00 PM, October 11, 2012
Center Hall, Busch Campus Center*

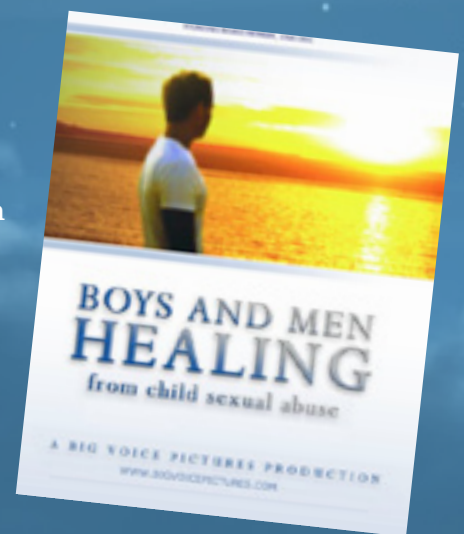

Male Survivor, a not for profit organization dedicated to overcoming sexual victimization of boys and men, will bring its national Dare 2 Dream program to Rutgers on October 11th. Dare to Dream focuses on a message of hope and healing to male survivors of sexual violence. The event will feature the film Boys and Men Healing, a facilitated panel discussion and an opportunity for male survivors to break their silence.

Panelists:

Mark Crawford, President of NJ SNAP
Chris Anderson, Executive Director of Male Survivor

Sponsored by:

The Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance,
The Center for Social Justice Education and LGBT
Communities, The Center for Women's Global Leadership,
