Intersections of Violence Against Women and Militarism

Wednesday, February 29, 2012

12:30—2:00p.m.

United Nations Church Center, 2nd floor room

Join us for a panel discussion with experts on the links between the perpetuation of militarism and its consequences for the safety and security of all. We will focus on key issues of relevance, including political violence against women, sexual violence during and post-conflict, and the roles of women's, peace, and human rights movements in challenging the links between violence against women and militarism.
