For the 60th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), a civil society campaign has been launched by The Elders to place the UDHR before the general public by asking them to pledge to live by the principles. The campaign's name and message is Every Human Has Rights. The Center for Women's Global Leadership (CWGL) has agreed to take the lead in the month of March to highlight women's rights as human rights.
