Join us for the

Premiere Screening of "MAKERS: Women Who Make America"

This documentary film features the story of the women's movement through the firsthand accounts of the leaders, opponents, and trailblazers who created a new America in the last half-century.

Tuesday, February 26
6:30 p.m. Pizza and Program
Ruth Dill Johnson Crockett Building
Conference Room
RSVP to Gail Reilly at gareilly@rci.rutgers.edu

Rutgers Professor Charlotte Bunch is highlighted in the film, as well as on the Makers website (www.makers.com). This groundbreaking, multi-platform project aims to illustrate the many ways in which women have profoundly transformed America. MAKERS is a 3 hour special and will be aired on PBS from 8-11 pm Feb. 26. We will preview the first hour of the film and Charlotte Bunch will comment on her involvement in the documentary.

This event is co-sponsored by the Center for Women’s Global Leadership, Institute for Women’s Leadership Consortium, and Douglass Residential College.