Now, more than ever, alternative ideas and practices on different ways of organizing economies that respond to the needs and dignity of the people and planet are needed. As feminists from around the world, we know that regulating capitalism alone is not enough, we must also dismantle systems of economic oppression while building and amplifying alternatives.

We invite you to this workshop to dare to imagine collectively that another world is possible and propose our feminist strategies for getting there.

SPEAKERS:

Emem J. Okon
Kebetkache Women Development & Resource Centre, Nigeria

Blessol Gathoni
The Rules/ Kenyans for Tax Justice campaign, Kenya

Luam Kidane
Former Youth Program Coordinator at FoodShare, Canada and co-founder of NSOROMMA, a Pan-African arts movement

Kali Akuno
Co-Director of Cooperation Jackson, Mississippi, USA

MODERATOR:

Hakima Abbas
Association for Women’s Rights in Development (AWID),

SPONSORED BY:

The Association for Women’s Rights in Development (AWID), the Center for Women’s Global Leadership (CWGL), African Women’s Development and Communication Network (FEMNET), and the Post-2015 Women’s Coalition.